READING RECOVERY: PREDICTION OF PROGRESS*

Child______________________________ RR Teacher________________________

School_____________________________ Date______________________________

Classroom Teacher________________________

Description of current classroom reading instruction:
(Complete with input from classroom teacher: group, level, instructional materials)

Predictions of Progress and Discontinuing   (check one)

____less than 12 weeks        _______12-15 weeks        _______ full 20 weeks

Rationale for weeks predicted:

In the next few weeks, he/she will need to know how to…

Extra work will be needed on…

I will need to pay special attention to…

* See: Clay, M., Part I Literacy Lessons Designed for Individuals. p. 31
At the end of the lesson series he will need to know how to do this and that in order to...

Reading Recovery teacher’s expectations for processing and problem-solving at the end of the child’s series of RR lessons.

Reading:

Writing:

Classroom teacher’s expectations for average achievement at the end of the child’s series of RR lessons. (Complete with input from classroom teacher)

Reading:

Writing:

* See: Clay, M., Part I Literacy Lessons Designed for Individuals. p. 31